SIMS MAKES A VIOLENT SPEECH

Accuses Thayer of All Sorts of Things, but at Last Resigns.

After filing a motion to strike from the files W. W. Thayer's petition to have him removed as master in chancery in the case of Whitehouse against Thayer, trustee, etc., and making a violent speech against Thayer, W. R. Sims resigned as master, and L. C. Ables was appointed in his place.

The original proceeding was Whitehouse vs. J. H. Wilson, and was for an accounting of the partnership. Wilson became a bankrupt and Thayer became his trustee in bankruptcy and was substituted for him as defendant. He has been trying for some time to get Sims to make a report on accounts of the partnership, and last June he secured an order from the court directing an immediate report. This has not been made, and finally Thayer filed a petition for a rule to show cause why he should not be removed.

Yesterday was the return day, and in the morning Sims filed a motion to strike the petition from the files. In his motion he said the petition was impertinent, fallacious and based wholly on personal malice.

"That the said trustee, in order to gratify his malicious, spiteful and infinitesimal nature, has so paraphrased said petition and couched it in such language and omitted to state facts, as to bring this respondent through its publicity into a position of odium and contempt, without regard and irrespective of the real merits of the subject in issue.

"The petitioner has lied absolutely, unblushingly and intently, in stating the premises leading to the quoted remarks of respondent, in the conversation alleged in said petition as of August 13, 1907, between said petitioner and this respondent."

There were other similar charges in the motion. Judge Lindsay set the hearing for 1:30 o'clock. At that time Sims made an oral argument along the lines of his written motion, in the course of it using language for which Judge Lindsay sharply rebuked him. He declared that no other man but himself could so well untangle the jumbled accounts of the partnership. He repeated his charges of malice on the part of Thayer and accused Thayer of efforts to injure him and members of his family.

When he finally offered to resign, Judge Lindsay very promptly accepted the resignation, and L. C. Ables was appointed. The matter was referred to Sims about eighteen months ago.

FISH OR CUT BAIT.

In the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Ah Sing and sixty-seven others, Deputy Attorney General Prosser has filed a motion in the Supreme Court asking for an order requiring the defendants to elect whether they shall rely upon the bill of exceptions filed in the case or on the writ of error issued out of the court.

A CASE OF ESTATES.

Final judgment has been entered in the case of F. H. Hayselden, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Walter Murray Gibson, deceased, against William H. Pain and Elsie S. V. Neumann, executrix of the will of the late Paul Neumann. The court orders the payment by the Gibson estate to the Neumann estate of $395.95, and by Pain to the Neumann estate of $8105.85.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

Judge De Bolt yesterday granted a divorce to John E. Roberts from his wife, Maria Isabella Roberts.

SALE REPORTED.

Commissioner M. T. Simonton reported to the Circuit Court yesterday the sale on Saturday, to foreclose a mortgage, of several pieces of property for $510 in the proceeding of the trustees of the estate of the late S. C. Allen vs. Keaulama et al. A deficiency of $2,112.45, exclusive of commissioner's fee, resulted.

ADMINISTRATORS DISCHARGED.

Yesterday Judge De Bolt approved the final accounts of Charles Bon, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Louis Marks, deceased. The administrator charged himself with $5956.41 and credited himself with $7994.77, leaving a balance of cash of $961.64. Besides this the estate includes land of no value in Tacoma, land in Hawaii, four shares of the stock of McCabe, Hamilton & Renny and an interest in a policy of life insurance on the life of W. Larsen. The inheritance tax on the estate was $105.23.

LIQUOR LAW TEST CASE.

In the case of Jacintho Miguel vs. C. G. Ballentyne et al., Judge De Bolt set the hearing of the demurrer for September 10 at 9 a. m. There are other cases which will decide the same issue which it is expected will be decided before that time.

DEFICIENCY JUDGMENT.

A deficiency judgment for $1107.72 was entered in the Circuit Court yesterday in favor of Henry Smith, trustee, vs. Raymond and Mary Reyes.

NOTES.

The Territory's bill of exceptions in its appeal in the case of Territory of Hawaii vs. Kapiolani Estate and McBryde Estate was filed yesterday in the Supreme Court.

In the Supreme Court yesterday the cases of Ernestberger vs. Nahau et al., and Kaaekokoi vs. Wailuku Sugar Co., were argued and submitted.

The Supreme Court yesterday adjourned till Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

WANTS $50,000 FOR A LEFT ARM

Judge Dole to Hear the Suit of Witthoff vs. the Bark Fullerton.

The hearing in the last of the maritime libels against the Pacific Mail S. S. Manchuria, wrecked on Waimanalo reef just a year ago this morning, was concluded in the United States District Court before Judge Dole yesterday. This was the suit of the Waimanalo Sugar Company as owners of the J. A. Cummins, against the Manchuria. There are a few reserved questions as to the admissibility or competence of evidence which Judge Dole will decide as soon as possible.

H. E. Cooper, representing the Waimanalo company, will file his brief by September 4, so that E. B. McClanahan, who represents the Manchuria, can see it before he sails for San Francisco September 6. At the conclusion of the hearing, McClanahan announced that this was the last court business he expected to handle before leaving for San Francisco, where he will locate permanently.

The case of Witthoff vs. the barkentine Fullerton will be heard next. Witthoff was the mate of the Fullerton. A day or two after leaving the coast his arm was injured in the course of his duties. Instead of putting back to the coast where proper medical attendance could be secured, the Fullerton continued on her course in tow of the Lansing, arriving several days later at Kihel where, on account of the delay, it was necessary to amputate the arm. Witthoff sues for $50,000 damages. Douthitt and Peters represent the libellant and Smith & Lewis the Fullerton.

MINOR POLICE COURT CASES.

Ten gamblers, including eight Chinks and two Hawaiians, were penalized by Judge Whitney yesterday, the total fines amounting to $72. There were six drunks up for judgment, three of whom were fined, one discharged and one liberated under suspended sentence. Two boys, Alexander Harrison and John Lina, who had appeared in the juvenile court and been allowed to go on probation, were back before the Judge yesterday, having forfeited their rights to be abroad. Both were sent to the Reform school until they arrive at an age of discretion.

THE WORRIED WOMEN.

"They say men must work and women must weep; but alas, in this too busy world women often have to work and weep at the same time. Their holidays are too few and their work heavy and monotonous. It makes them nervous and irritable. The depressed and worried woman loses her appetite and grows thin and feeble. Once in a while she has spells of palpitation and has to lie up for a day or two. If some disease like influenza or malarial fever happens to prevail she is almost certain to have an attack of it, and that often paves the way for chronic troubles of the throat, lungs and other organs; and there is no saying what the end may be. Let the tired and overladen woman rest as much as possible; and, above all, place at her command a bottle of WAMPOL'S PREPARATION

a true and sure remedy for the ills and maladies of women. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Search the world over and you will find nothing to equal it. Taken before meals it improves the nutritive value of ordinary foods by making them easier to assimilate, and has carried hope and good cheer into thousands of homes. It is absolutely reliable and effective in Nervous Dyspepsia, Impaired Nutrition, Low Vitality, Wasting Conditions, Melancholy, Chlorosis, Scrofula, and all troubles of the Throat and Lungs. Dr. E. J. Boyes says: "I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two months' treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It carries the guarantee of reliability and cannot fail or disappoint you. At chemists
